

'beyond fear - there is freedom'

CHULU WEST PEAK – NEPAL

Expressions of interest are sought from xtreme people interested in joining a mountaineering adventure to the Himalayan range in Nepal.

During May 2006 xtreme adventures will be leading an expedition to climb Chulu West Peak, Nepal via the standard route.

Chulu West Peak (6419m/21054ft) is part of the Manang Himal with access gained via the Annapurna Circuit and is one of the trekking peaks of Nepal.

The objective of the expedition is to have fun and participate in something truly unique as well as enjoying the spectacle that is the Himalayas. You will be accompanying like minded 'xtreme' people. Mountaineering experience is not necessary, just a desire for adventure and a willingness to participate as a team member.

The expedition will be lead by Australian and Nepalese mountaineers who between them have years of Himalayan experience including Mount Everest and Mount Cho Oyu amongst other Himalayan peaks.

The duration of the expedition is 23 days at a cost of AUD$2600 excl. GST, airfare and taxes.

For a detailed information kit and booking form contact:
xtremead@bigpond.net.au or Jack on 0423 532 809

(Keep in mind our Trekking/Mountaineering Expedition to Mount Everest Base Camp, Lobuche Peak and Island Peak – Nepal in October/November 2006 – Details T.B.A.)